Claim will be triggered only once on the first diagnosis of critical illness or accidental total and permanent disability or death of the proposer of the base plan during the rider term.

Accident

An accident is a sudden, unforeseen and involuntary event caused by external, visible and violent means.

* Accidental Total and Permanent Disability

Accidental Total and Permanent Disability is defined as disability caused by bodily injury, which causes permanent inability to perform any occupation or to engage in any activities for remuneration or profits. This disability should last for at least one hundred and eighty (180) days before being eligible for total and permanent disability benefits. Further the company reserves the right to call for medical examination as they may require fit in this regard. The premium during the 180 day waiting period needs to be paid by the policyholder. However once the policyholder is eligible for the claim, the company will reimburse the premiums paid by the policyholder during the 180 days.

Total and permanent disability also includes the loss of both arms, or both legs, or one arm and one leg, or of both eyes. Loss of arms means dismemberment by amputation from the wrist joint and loss of legs means dismemberment by amputation from the ankle joint. Loss of eyes means entire and irrecoverable loss of sight. In these circumstances waiting period of 180 days will not be applicable.
