When rider is attached subsequent to policy issuance, the rider premium payment term would be equal to remaining premium payment term of the base policy.

Benefit payable

✓ On Accidental Total and Permanent Disability*

In the event of total and permanent disability due to accident#, 100% of the rider sum assured is paid. The benefit is payable in lump sum.

The benefit is payable only once during the term of the policy. The cover under this rider will cease after a claim under this rider is paid. However, the remainder of the base policy continues till the end of the term. The policyholder will have to continue paying his premiums for the remainder of the policy.

The benefit under this rider is payable only when the base plan is in effect.

An accident is a sudden, unforeseen and involuntary event caused by external, visible and violent means.

* Accidental Total and Permanent Disability is defined as disability caused by bodily injury, which causes permanent inability to perform any occupation or to engage in any activities for remuneration or profits. This disability should last for at least one hundred and eighty (180) days before being eligible for total and permanent disability benefits. Further the company reserves the right to call for medical examination as they may require fit in this regard.

Total and permanent disability also includes the loss of both arms, or both legs, or one arm and one leg, or of both eyes. Loss of arms means dismemberment by amputation from the wrist joint and loss of legs means dismemberment by amputation from the ankle joint. Loss of eyes means entire and irrecoverable loss of sight. In these circumstances waiting period of 180 days will not be applicable.

Injury

Injury means accidental physical bodily harm excluding illness or disease solely and directly caused by external, violent and visible and evident means which is verified and certified by a Medical Practitioner.
