- (v) Solicitation through any means of communication other than in person.

Suicide Claim provisions

In case of death due to suicide within 12 months from the date of commencement of risk under the policy or from the date of revival of the policy, as applicable, the nominee or beneficiary of the policyholder shall be entitled to at least 80% of the total premiums paid till the date of death or the surrender value available as on the date of death whichever is higher, provided the policy is in force.

Grace period for non-forfeiture provisions

Grace period is 30 days. The policy will remain in force during the grace period. If a premium is not paid for 30 days from the date of payment, the policy will lapse and no benefits will be applicable.

Revivals/reinstatements/policy changes/alterations

If premiums are not paid within the period of grace the policy lapses. The policy may be revived within five years from the date of the first unpaid premium. The revival will be considered based on the underwriting and on payment of all overdue premiums with simple interest of 1% per month.

On revival original sum assured will be restored.

Nomination

The Life Assured, where he/she is the holder of the policy, may, at any time before the Maturity or Termination date of the policy, make a nomination (under section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938) for the purpose of payment of the money secured by the policy in the event of his/ her death. Where the nominee is a minor, he may also appoint an appointee i.e. a person to receive the money during the minority of the nominee. Any change of nomination, which may be effected before the Maturity or Termination Date of policy shall also be communicated to the Company.

The company will record the nomination or change in nomination as requested by the policyholder. The Company does not accept any responsibility of validating the nomination.

Assignment

Assignment is allowed on specific request made by the policyholder. Assignee/s shall be a person/s to whom the policy is assigned by the policyholder in accordance with the provision of section (38) of the Insurance Act 1938 to transfer all the equities and liabilities to which policy holder was subject at the date of assignment. The benefits of the policy can be protected from creditors by writing a policy under the Married Women's Property Act (MWP Act), 1874.

After assignment, assignee may institute any proceedings in relation to the policy without obtaining the consent of the policyholder or making him the party to such proceedings. Any change of assignment, which may be effected before the maturity or termination date of the policy, should also be communicated to the Company.

The company will record the assignment or change in assignment as requested by the policyholder. The Company does not accept any responsibility of validating the assignment.
