Part B

Defined Term	Meaning
Accident	An accident means sudden, unforeseen and involuntary event caused by external, visible and violent means.
Accidental Total and Permanent Disability	Means disability caused by bodily injury which causes permanent inability to perform any occupation or to engage in any activities for remuneration or profits. This disability should last for at least 180 days before being eligible for Total and Permanently Disability benefits. Total and Permanently Disability includes the loss of both arms OR both legs OR one arm and one leg OR both eyes. Where (i) loss of arms means dismemberment by amputation from the wrist joint; (ii) loss of legs means dismemberment by amputation from the ankle joint; (iii) loss of eyes means the entire and irrecoverable loss of sight. In case of Total and Permanently Disability that includes loss of arms or legs or loss of eyes, as mentioned above, the waiting period of 180 days is not applicable. Further the company reserves the right to call for registered medical examination as they may require fit in this regard.
Injury	Injury means accidental physical bodily harm excluding illness or disease solely and directly caused by external, violent and visible and evident means which is verified and certified by a Medical Practitioner.
Illness	Illness means a sickness or a disease or pathological condition leading to the impairment of normal physiological function and requires medical treatment. a. Acute condition - Acute condition is a disease, illness or injury that is likely to respond quickly to treatment which aims to return the person to his or her state of health immediately before suffering the disease/illness/injury which leads to full recovery. b. Chronic condition - A chronic condition is defined as a disease, illness, or injury that has one or more of the following characteristics: —it needs ongoing or long-term monitoring through consultations, examinations, check-ups, and /or tests —it needs ongoing or long-term control or relief of symptoms —it requires rehabilitation for the patient or for the patient to be specially trained to cope with it —it continues indefinitely —it recurs or is likely to recur
Medical Advice	Medical advice means any consultation or advice from a Medical Practitioner including the issuance of any prescription or follow-up prescription.
Medical Practitioner	Medical practitioner means a person who holds a valid registration from the medical council of any state or Medical Council of India or Council for Indian Medicine or for Homeopathy set up by the Government of India or a State Government and is thereby entitled to practice medicine within its jurisdiction; and is acting within its scope and jurisdiction of license. The Medical practitioner should not be <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The policyholder/insured person himself/herself; or • An authorised insurance intermediary (or related persons) involved with selling or servicing the insurance contract in question; or • Employed by or under contractual engagement with the insurance company; • Related to the policyholder/insured person by blood or marriage.
Pre-Existing Disease	Pre-existing Disease means any condition, ailment, injury or disease: a) That is/are diagnosed by a physician within 48 months prior to the effective date of the policy issued by the insurer or its reinstatement or b) For which medical advice or treatment was recommended by, or received from, a physician within 48 months prior to the effective date of the policy issued by the insurer or its reinstatement.

If the complaint/grievance has still not been resolved you may at any time approach the Office of the Insurance Ombudsman established by the Central Government of India as per Rule 13 and 14 of the Insurance Ombudsman Rules, 2017 ('Insurance Ombudsman Rules').

Powers of Insurance Ombudsman under Rule 13 of the Insurance Ombudsman Rules:

The Ombudsman shall receive and consider the following complaints or disputes relating to:

- a. delay in settlement of claims, beyond the time specified in the regulations, framed under Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India Act, 1999;

- b. any partial or total repudiation of claims by the Company;
- c. disputes over premium paid or payable in terms of insurance policy;
- d. misrepresentation of policy terms and conditions at any time in the Policy document or policy contract;
- e. legal construction of insurance policies in so far as the dispute relates to claim;
- f. policy servicing related grievances against the Company and their agents and intermediaries;
- g. issuance of life insurance policy including health insurance policy which is not in conformity with the proposal form submitted by the proposer;
- h. non-issuance of insurance policy after receipt of premium in life insurance including health insurance; and
- i. any other matter resulting from the violation of provisions of the Insurance Act, 1938 or the regulations, circulars, guidelines or instructions issued by the IRDAI from time to time or the terms and conditions of the policy contract, in so far as they relate to issues mentioned at clauses (a) to (f) as mentioned above.

Manner in which complaint is to be made in accordance with Rule 14 of the Insurance Ombudsman Rules:

1. Any person who has a grievance against the Insurer/Company/Us, may himself or through his legal heirs make a complaint in writing to the Ombudsman within whose territorial jurisdiction the branch or office of the Company, complaint against or the residential address or place of residence of the complainant is located.
2. The complaint shall be in writing duly signed by the complainant or through his legal heirs, nominee or assignee and shall state clearly the name and address of the complainant, the name of the branch or office of the insurer against which the complaint is made, the fact giving rise to complaint, supported by documents, the nature and extent of the loss caused to the complainant and the relief sought from the Ombudsman.
3. No complaint to the Insurance Ombudsman shall lie unless:
 - (a) the complainant makes a written representation to the Company named in the complaint and—
 - i. either the Company had rejected the complaint; or
 - ii. the complainant had not received any reply within a period of one month after the Company received the complainant's representation; or
 - iii. the complainant is not satisfied with the reply given to him by the Company;
 - (b) The complaint is made within one year—
 - i. after the order of the Company rejecting the representation is received; or
 - ii. after receipt of decision of the Company which is not to the satisfaction of the complainant;
 - iii. after expiry of a period of one month from the date of sending the written representation to the Company if the Company named in the complaint fails to furnish reply to the complainant.
4. The Insurance Ombudsman shall be empowered to condone the delay in filing a complaint as mentioned above under (3) (b), as he may consider necessary, after calling for objections of the Company against the proposed condonation and after recording reasons for condoning the delay and in case the delay is condoned, the date of condonation of delay shall be deemed to be the date of filing of the complaint, for further proceedings under the Insurance Ombudsman Rules.
5. No complaint before the Insurance Ombudsman shall be maintainable on the same subject matter on which proceedings are pending before or disposed of by any court or consumer forum or arbitrator.
